CATHOLIC CAMPAIGN FOR HUMAN DEVELOPMENT...

Next weekend our special second collection will be for the annual archdiocesan appeal for Human Development. As members of the Catholic Church, we acknowledge that as the body of Christ, we are bound together. And, as one body, we share the griefs and anxieties of the nearly 36 million Americans who live in poverty. Through the Catholic Campaign for Human Development, we can join with them to turn those griefs and anxieties into joy and hope. Please be as generous as your means allow.

IS GOD CALLING YOU TO A CLOSER RELATIONSHIP WITH HIM?

“Come, then, return to me and learn to know me as your Father, who repays good for evil, love for injury, and boundless charity for piercing wounds.” If you have considered becoming a member of the Catholic Faith, or you are a Baptized Catholic who has not completed the Sacraments of Confirmation and Eucharist, then please contact Deacon Michael at the Rectory to explore this relationship with God.

ANNUAL PARISH FINANCIAL STATEMENT...

Please note enclosed in today’s bulletin, our annual financial statement for the fiscal year ending 8-31-05. To save the expense of postage, we are using this method of distribution this year. If you do not receive the insert or have any questions concerning the statement, please call the Rectory.

Is it OK to be angry with God?

Why does God let men who are good guys die, and why does God keep abusive men like the freak show that my mom is married to around? I am really mad at God right now. My uncle, a good man, died last March, and the man that my mom is married to he still lives here on earth to mentally abuse my mom. I used to believe that God was a good guy, but now I do not think so anymore.

Angry

Dear Angry,

I think many people get mad at God at one time or another in their lives. We want God to take care of things in certain ways, and when God does not, we get angry or disappointed. We think that we have the proper solution to a problem and that God should solve the problem in the way we have planned. But God's ways are not our ways.

God gave us each free will. We value our own free will and do not want God to force us into anything. We must also respect the free will of others, even when they make stupid or hurtful decisions. God will not force anyone into anything. God will not make someone do something.

God will, however, give us the grace to get through the difficult spots of life, even if we are angry with him. God may not change the man your mother married, but he will give her the strength to make good decisions for herself and her family. God will help you in your time of need. Be angry at God if you wish. God is used to it. But, don't forget to ask God for help.
