What Makes A Dad

*God took the strength of a mountain
The majesty of a tree,
The warmth of a summer sun,
The calm of a quiet sea,*

*The generous soul of nature,
The comforting arm of night,
The wisdom of the ages,
The power of the eagle's flight.*

*The joy of a morning in spring,
The faith of a mustard seed,
The patience of eternity,
The depth of a family's need.*

*Then God combined these qualities;
When there was nothing more to add,
He knew His masterpiece was complete,
And so, He called it --- Dad.*

.....Author Unknown

Listen to what your father teaches you;
Pay attention,
and you will have understanding
I have taught you wisdom
and the right way to live;
Nothing will stand in your way
if you walk wisely.
And you will not stumble
when you run.

-- Proverbs 4:1, 11-12

We Welcome Our New Permanent Deacons

We congratulate our two new Deacons Kevin Byrne and Gregory Osgood who were ordained on June 17, 2006 at St. Patrick's Cathedral.

We pray for them, their wives, Maryanne and Diane, and their families as they take on this new vocation in service to our parish.

The Ministries of Deacons in the Archdiocese of New York

"Strengthened by sacramental grace, in communion with the Bishop and his group of priests, deacons serve the People of God in the Ministry of Charity (Love and Justice), the Word, and the Liturgy."

The Ordinary of the Archdiocese of New York has authorized deacons:

The Ministry of Charity (Love and Justice) [munus regendi]

...to minister to the sick, the elderly, the bereaved, the homebound, AIDS victims, the handicapped, alcoholics and drug addicts and patients in nursing homes;

...to carry out, in the name of the hierarchy, the duties of charity, for example, directing a food pantry, or working with the members of the St. Vincent de Paul Society in distributing clothing etc.;

...to promote and sustain the apostolic activities of the laity;

...to serve as chaplains and assistant chaplains in prisons and hospitals in the Archdiocese of New York.

The Ministry of the Word of God [munus docendi]

...to proclaim the Gospel at the liturgy;

...to preach at baptisms, marriages, and wake services;

...to preach at the liturgy when the appropriate archdiocesan preaching faculty has been granted;

...to instruct those preparing for Sacraments of Initiation and Matrimony;

...to instruct and receive converts; to participate in adult education programs, to instruct children in the teachings of the Faith;

...to counsel those who are seeking an annulment as well as those who are separated and divorced in the Church.

The Ministry of the Altar [munus sanctificandi]

...to assist the bishop and the priest during liturgical celebrations in all actions which the rituals assign him;
...to preach the Word of God within the Archdiocese of New York at baptisms, marriages and wake services;

...to administer Baptism solemnly in a parish church and to supply the ceremonies of Baptism in cases where the sacrament had been administered in an emergency;

...to distribute the Holy Eucharist to communicants both during the Holy Sacrifice of the Mass and outside of Mass on "Communion calls" to the sick and shut-ins; to bring Viaticum to the dying; to self-communicate if no priest is present; and to replace the Eucharist in the tabernacle;

...to expose the Blessed Sacrament at Benediction and to give the blessing with the sacrament;

...to witness a Catholic marriage in a parish church;

...to lead in the communal recitation of the Liturgy of the Hours and in the absence of a priest, to give the blessing at the end;

...to conduct services in church, to officiate at wakes, funerals, and burial services, and to lead groups of the faithful in prayer;

...to direct the Liturgy of the Word, particularly in the absence of a priest.

...to give blessings as prescribed in the revised Roman Ritual Book

The diaconal ministries, although categorized by ministry, the deacon is ordained for them all. There is an intrinsic relationship among the three areas of the deacon's ministry if he is to be a sign of the Servant-Christ who redeemed us as Prophet, Priest, and King.
