Msgr. Brennan's Retirement Gift

In the name of the parish, the Parish Council presented the gift of a Monument to the Unborn and Little Children to Msgr. Brennan when he retired as Pastor last year. Over 100 donations have been made by parishioners and parish groups. Donations covered the complete cost of the monument. Msgr. Brennan and the Committee for the Monument express their sincerest gratitude for these generous donations towards the purchase and placement of the monument. Personal acknowledgement cards have been sent to all of the donors. May God bless you always for your love and generosity. You will be remembered in a special Mass. The inscription on the monument was revised based on suggestions from parishioners. Color rendering of the monument with the new inscription are on display in the vestibule of both churches. The monument is expected to be ready for placement later in the summer.
