From the Office of the Cardinal:

We are truly delighted that the Bicentennial Anniversary of the Archdiocese of New York will be brought to an extraordinarily happy conclusion with the visit of our Holy Father, Pope Benedict XVI, to New York. This historic occasion will indeed be a time of great spiritual grace for Catholics and all the people of Greater New York.

As everyone will understand, the cost of an event of this kind is very high. Accordingly, I write to invite all of the People of God of the Archdiocese to make a truly sacrificial offering to help defray some of the expense of the Papal Visit. A collection will be taken up in each of the parishes in the Archdiocese on the weekend of April 5th and 6th. Your participation in this collection and your prayers for the success of the Holy Father's visit will be deeply appreciated.

FROM THE DESK OF FR. BISIGNANO:

All of the liturgies of Lent, Holy Week and the Triduum could not have been made possible without the extraordinary hard work of many, many people. We are so grateful to: Lectors - who prepared and proclaimed each scripture reading with care. Extraordinary Ministers of Holy Communion - who performed their ministry with reverence and brought the Lord to the homebound. Altar Servers (especially senior servers) - who served at the altar with dignity and prayerfulness. Ushers and Ministers of Hospitality - who made us feel welcome and comfortable. Sacristans - who worked tirelessly on the hundreds of details that the liturgies of Holy Week entail. Maintenance Staff - who kept each church clean and arranged and re-arranged the facilities for those days. All those who provided and arranged the flowers and plants that beautify both churches. Members of the Music Ministry - children, teens, and adults - many of whom served at several liturgies during Holy Week. Deacons - who performed their ministries with care and then did whatever other tasks were asked of them. My Brother Priests - who led us in prayer throughout these days and whose constant support is invaluable. And You, the People of St. Patrick's - whose participation in all of the liturgies has been an inspiration and upon whose prayers we rely throughout the year. My sincerest thanks to each and every one of you - and may you be abundantly blessed throughout the Easter Season.
